ON THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE REMUNERATION POLICY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SIRMA GROUP HOLDING JSC FOR 2018

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. The legal basis of the Report

During the period January 1, 2018 - December 31, 2018 (hereafter referred to as the "Reporting Period"), Sirma Group Holding JSC (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") has applied the remuneration policy of the members of the Board of Directors approved by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company held on 04.12.2014, as amended by decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 14.06.2016, published on the Internet at the following address:

https://www.sirma.com/investors/corporate_governance/

(Hereinafter referred to as the "Policy").

This report has been prepared by the Remuneration Committee in compliance with the requirement of Art. 12, para. 1 of Ordinance No. 48 of March 20, 2013, on the Fees Requirements, issued by the Financial Supervision Commission (hereinafter "Ordinance No. 48"). The report forms an independent document to the annual financial statement of the Company for the year 2018. The report is presented to the shareholders of the Company and may be discussed with the members of the Board of Directors at the regular annual meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company.

The composition of the Remuneration Committee is as follows:

- Georgi Parvanov Marinov - Chairman
- Peter Borisov Statev - member
- Jordan Stoyanov Nedev - member

1.2. Subject and Scope of the Report

According to Art. 12, para. 2 of Ordinance No. 48, the Report contains a review of the way the Policy is applied during the Reporting Period;

The Report includes all the requisites, which are mandatory according to Art. 13 of Ordinance No. 48.

Considering the absence of amendments to the Policy during the Reporting Period, the Report does not contain summary information.

2. INFORMATION ON THE APPLICATION OF POLICY IN THE REPORTING PERIOD

2.1. Information on the decision-making process in defining the Policy

According to Art. 116c, para. 1 of the Public Offering of Securities Act, the Company's Articles of Association and the Policy, the determination of the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors, their right to receive part of their profits and their right to acquire shares or debt instruments of the Company shall be the power of the General Meeting.

In exercising this power, the General Assembly is:

- determined the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors with the decision under item 7 of the agenda of the annual general meeting held on June 14, 2016, as follows:
- The General Meeting of Shareholders approves a maximum permissible total amount of the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors as follows:

- The maximum amount of permanent salaries - up to BGN 384 000 per year.

- The maximum amount of the short-term variable remuneration - up to 6% (six percent) of the net consolidated profit, but not more than 40% (forty percent) of the unconsolidated profit before tax and provisions.

- The total number of shares from the capital of the Company, which may be granted as remuneration to the members of the Board, are detailed in the Policy for remuneration.

2.2. Information on the relative weighting of the variable and permanent remuneration of members of the Board of Directors

In accordance with Article 7 and 8 of policy, "Sirma Group Holding" JSC can be paid to the members of the Board of Directors as permanent (fixed) and variable remuneration in the form of premiums, bonuses, benefits related to retirement and other material incentives that are given on the basis of performance evaluation criteria. Variable remuneration is short-term and long-term. Short-term remuneration is paid in cash and long-term - in the form of shares in the company's capital. The amount of short-term variable remuneration is up to 6% (six percent) of the net consolidated profit, but not more than 40% (forty percent) of the value of individual accounting profit before tax and provisions for short-term variable remuneration. The amount of the annual long-term variable remuneration paid in the form of shares shall be 0.5% of the total number of shares in the company's capital.

Variable remuneration payments are made in accordance with objective and measurable performance criteria and non-financial indicators that are designed to promote long-term business stability and are relevant to the long-term business of the company.

About the Reporting Period:

- Only permanent fixed remuneration was paid to each of the members of the Board of Directors, representing 100% (one hundred percent) of the remuneration charged by the Company for its activity as such during the Reporting Period; and
- no authority of the Company has taken any decisions on payment of additional fees, bonuses, incentives, non-monetary benefits or payments and benefits of any kind to the members of the Board as such during the period.

2.3. Information on the performance criteria on the basis of which variable remuneration is provided; an explanation of how these criteria contribute to the long-term interests of the Company; an explanation of the methods used to assess whether the criteria are met and the relationship between remuneration and the results achieved and the periods of postponement of the payment of variable remuneration

For the Reporting Period, no variable remuneration has been charged or paid to any member of the Board of Directors. Accordingly, no methods have been applied to assess the fulfilment of the criteria and the relationship between the results achieved and such remuneration.

No payment of any part of the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors was postponed for the Reporting Period.
